

Daniel: the _____ of a wise man (24-30; 46-49)

He gives all _____.

He is concerned for _____ more than _____.

The Statue portrays the kingdoms of man. (32-33)

Each successive kingdom becomes less precious or impressive.

Head of gold: Babylon (66 years: 605 – 539 BC)

Chest and Arms of silver: Medes and Persians (208 years: 539–331 bc)

Middle and Thighs of bronze: Greece (185 years: 331 – 146 BC)

Legs of iron: Rome (about 500 years as a unified empire, 27 BC – 1453 AD in total)

Feet of iron and clay: End times world power (ten horns of Rev 13:10; 17:12)

The Stone is God's kingdom which _____ man's kingdoms and _____ forever.

1. The statue vs. the stone.

2. The stone _____ the statue. (34-35; 44-45)

3. The stone stands forever.

How does this apply to me?

For next week: Read John 20:1-18

Why do you think Jesus met with Mary individually in the garden?
