

To be strengthened for service, we must first be undone before God and tremble at His Word.

I. A real encounter with God always leaves us undone.

II. Strength for service is never our own. It is given to us.

III. What God says is true. Period. It's not up for debate.

The Pattern: overwhelmed (terror), silence, strengthened to listen, obey.

How does this apply to me?

For next week: Read Daniel 10:15-21

Next week Pastor Ty Lemke will be speaking.
