

Walking together, we protect each other from falling.

To fall away, is not just a mental or an emotional thing.
It is a personal break in relationship with God Himself.

I. The problem is an unbelieving heart.

- A heart that doesn't trust what God says is evil.
- Sin is deceitful.
- Sin hardens a heart that doesn't trust God.

II. Together we protect one another.

- By exhorting.
- Continually.

How does this apply to me?
