

Van Gogh in America celebrates the DIA's status as the first public museum in the United States to purchase a painting by Vincent van Gogh, his Self-Portrait (1887). On the 100th anniversary of its acquisition, experience 74 authentic Van Gogh works from around the world and discover the fascinating story of America's introduction to this iconic artist, in an exhibition only at the DIA.

What: A trip to the DIA to view a unique exhibit of Van Gogh paintings; lunch in the café

When: Friday, November 11 (note change of date from previously announced)

Time: 10:15 a.m. to 3:15 p.m.

Cost: $35.00 per person (If you are a member of the DIA, the cost will be only $15.00.)

Deadline to register: Sunday, October 30

Last year we had the opportunity to experience "Beyond Van Gogh" – a multi-media production which enlarged the paintings to enable the viewer to "walk into the paintings." The DIA exhibit features actual Van Gogh paintings. We will arrive in time for lunch in the DIA café (on your own) and then tour the exhibit. Come and join us for this unique opportunity.

Deadline to register: Sunday, October 30

To register, complete the form below and, together with your check made out to Highland Park Baptist Church, place it in the box provided at the Welcome Center or mail it to Irma Henderson, 704 S. Alexander Ave, Royal Oak, MI 48067.
