

Faith shapes our life today because it sees the future with the same clarity and certainty as the present and the past.

We live by faith today when we see God's promise of the future with the same certainty as His provision of the past.

Because of who Jesus is, the future is as certain as the past. Faith enables us to live today with confidence and endurance.

I. Faith makes the unseen reality as real as the reality we can see. (1)

- Faith sees the unseen future with the same certainty as the seen present and past.

II. Faith alone makes the believer approved by God. (2)

III. Faith sees the power and reality of the unseen God behind what can be seen. (3)

How does this apply to me?
